

The night Jesus was born, an angel appeared to some shepherds and told them:

“Don’t be afraid! I have good news for you, which will make everyone happy. This very day in King David’s hometown a Saviour was born for you. He is Christ the Lord. You will know who he is, because you will find him dressed in baby clothes and lying on a bed of hay.”

After the angels had left and gone back to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see what the Lord has told us about.” They hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and they saw the baby lying on a bed of hay. . . .

As the shepherds returned to their sheep, they were praising God and saying wonderful things about him. Everything they had seen and heard was just as the angel had said.

This story is from the Gospel of Luke, chapter 2, parts of verses 10-20, in the Bible. If you don’t have a Bible, you can get one from your local Bible Society or from any bookstore. Ask for the Contemporary English Version.
